Claims 3-25 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on November 10, 2003 have been received and entered.

Claims 3-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over Arch.Ophthamol. 117:1329-1345.

The Arch of ophthamol teaches the use of photodynamic therapy for the treatment of choroidal neovascularization at different intervals. See the entire article. The above reference differs from the claimed invention in the specific intervals used. It would have been obvious to a person skilled in the art, to use different intervals in the photodynamic therapy, considering that the prior art teaches the use of intervals in the photodynamic therapy is old and well known. One skilled in the art would have been motivated to employ the teaching of the above reference, considering that such reference teaches the use of different intervals in a photodynamic therapy for the treatment of choroidal neovascularization is of and well know. The determination of different intervals is considered to be within the skill of artisan in the absence of evidence to the contrary. Applicant has presented no evidence to establish the unexpected or unobvious nature of the claimed invention, and as such, claims 3-25 are properly rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103.

The newly submitted amendment necessitates the new ground of rejection.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
